INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

1. The petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten and signed and dated by the petitioner, under penalty of perjury. Any false statement of an important fact may lead to prosecution for perjury. Answer all questions in the proper space on the form.
2. Additional pages are not allowed except in answer to questions 11 and 20. Do not cite legal authorities. Any additional arguments or facts you want to present must be in a separate memorandum. The petition, including attachments, may not exceed 20 pages.
3. Receipt of the $5.00 filing fee or a grant of permission to proceed in forma pauperis must occur before the court will consider your petition.
4. If you do not have the necessary filing fee, you may ask permission to proceed in forma pauperis. To proceed in forma pauperis, (1) you must sign the declaration provided with this petition to show that you cannot prepay the fees and costs, and (2) if you are confined in TDCJ-CID, you must send in a certified In Forma Pauperis Data Sheet form from the institution in which you are confined. If you are in an institution other than TDCJ-CID, you must send in a certificate completed by an authorized officer at your institution certifying the amount of money you have on deposit at that institution. If you have access or have had access to enough funds to pay the filing fee, then you must pay the filing fee.

5. Only judgments entered by one court may be challenged in a single petition. A separate petition must be filed to challenge a judgment entered by a different state court.
6. Include all of your grounds for relief and all of the facts that support each ground for relief in this petition.
7. Mail the completed petition and one copy to the U. S. District Clerk. The "Venue List" in your unit law library lists all of the federal courts in Texas, their divisions, and the addresses for the clerk's offices. The proper court will be the federal court in the division and district in which you were convicted (for example, a Dallas County conviction is in the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division) or where you are now in custody (for example, the Huntsville units are in the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division).
8. Failure to notify the court of your change of address could result in the dismissal of your case.

PETITION

What are you challenging? (Check all that apply)

Date of Result: _____

All petitioners must answer the remaining questions:

20. For this petition, state every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting them.

CAUTION: To proceed in the federal court, you must ordinarily first exhaust your available state-court remedies on each ground on which you request action by the federal court. Also, if you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

- A. GROUND ONE: The Trial Court erred in not granting Petitioner's motion to suppress evidence based on illegal search and seizure.

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Mr. Perez was illegally detained and arrested without the officer who detained him having reasonable suspicion that Mr. Perez was engaged in, had engaged in, or was about to engage in any illegal activity. The trial court erred in not granting Petitioner's motion to suppress the drugs in this case.

- B. GROUND TWO: Trial Counsel was ineffective for failing to conduct adequate pretrial investigation in order to impeach officer's testimony.

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Trial counsel failed to interview witness Fabian Amaya to gain evidence to impeach the arresting officer's testimony that Mr. Perez had engaged in an illegal hand-to-hand transaction and to testify that the officer immediately drew his weapon without any justification and detained Mr. Perez. Trial Counsel also failed to investigate the officer's disciplinary record.

- C. GROUND THREE: Trial Counsel rendered ineffective assistance of counsel by failing to have command of controlling law.

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):
During Trial Counsel's arguments in support of his motion to suppress, Trial Counsel argued law in support of his motion that was outdated and no longer good or controlling law. His failure to have command of controlling law prejudiced Mr. Perez.

(See Ground One of State writ application)

- D. GROUND FOUR: Trial Counsel rendered ineffective assistance of counsel by failing to preserve the appellate record by making proper objections during the motion to suppress.

Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Trial Counsel failed to object to the Trial Judge's erroneous finding that Mr. Perez had been seen leaving an illegally parked vehicle. The appeals court relied on the erroneous finding to deny Mr. Perez's appeal. (See Ground Two of State Writ)

21. Relief sought in this petition: Find that the State habeas courts' resolution of Mr. Perez's claims are based on an unreasonable determination of the facts in light of the evidence presented, and an unreasonable, or contrary to, application of well established Supreme Court law.

22. Have you previously filed a federal habeas petition attacking the same conviction, parole revocation or disciplinary proceeding that you are attacking in this petition? ☐ Yes ☒ No
If your answer is "Yes," give the date on which each petition was filed and the federal court in which it was filed. Also state whether the petition was (a) dismissed without prejudice, (b) dismissed with prejudice, or (c) denied.

If you previously filed a federal petition attacking the same conviction and such petition was denied or dismissed with prejudice, did you receive permission from the Fifth Circuit to file a second petition, as required by 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(3) and (4)? ☐ Yes ☐ No

23. Are any of the grounds listed in question 20 above presented for the first time in this petition?
☐ Yes ☐ No

If your answer is "Yes," state briefly what grounds are presented for the first time and give your reasons for not presenting them to any other court, either state or federal.

- _____

24. Do you have any petition or appeal now pending (filed and not yet decided) in any court, either state or federal, for the judgment you are challenging? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," identify each type of proceeding that is pending (i.e., direct appeal, art. 11.07 application, or federal habeas petition), the court in which each proceeding is pending, and the date each proceeding was filed. _____

25. Give the name and address, if you know, of each attorney who represented you in the following stages of the judgment you are challenging:

- (a) At preliminary hearing: Gabriel Salais
(b) At arraignment and plea: Same
(c) At trial: Same
(d) At sentencing: Same
(e) On appeal: Adam Rodrigue
(f) In any post-conviction proceeding: _____

(g) On appeal from any ruling against you in a post-conviction proceeding: _____

Timeliness of Petition:

26. If your judgment of conviction, parole revocation or disciplinary proceeding became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.¹

¹ The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA"), as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d), provides in part that:

- (1) A one-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of -
 - (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;
 - (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;
 - (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
 - (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.
- (2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that the Court grant him the relief to which he may be entitled.
